

Doc's Three Page Letter to Marty

Saturday, 27 January 2007

After Marty and Doc destroy the Gray's Sports Almanac, an unexpected bolt of lightning hits the DeLorean engaging the Flux Capacitor sending Doc back to the year 1885. This leaves Marty standing in the rain wondering if Doc Brown is still alive. Just then a mysterious messenger arrives with a letter. As Marty reads the first page we find out that it is from the Doc and he is alive and well!

This letter serves as the bridge between Part II and Part III. Part II ends with Marty starting to read the letter. Part III has 1955 Doc and 1985 Marty reading all three pages as they devise a plan to rescue 1985 Doc from 1885. The pages of the letter are aged so that they appear to be 70 years old. There are also fake rain drop ink smears.
